

BYLAWS OF Maryland Association for Institutional Research, Inc.

Article I – Name and Purpose

The name and purposes of the Association are set forth in the Articles of Incorporation.

Article II – Membership and Voting

Section 1

Membership shall be open to any person actively engaged in institutional research, planning, evaluation, assessment, and/or policy analysis in postsecondary education or any person who has professional interest in these activities.

Section 2

Membership will be divided into two categories: full and emeritus.

Section 3

Full members are those individuals who pay for a year's membership a benefit of which is attendance at the Annual Conference. Individuals who choose not to attend the Annual Conference, but who pay a reduced amount determined by the Board of Directors are also considered full members.

Section 4

The status of emeritus membership may be granted to those deemed eligible by the Awards Committee. Emeritus status is considered as full membership in the Association. Emeritus members do not pay annual membership dues.

Section 5

Membership is valid on an annual basis from the beginning of the Annual Conference to the day before the next Annual Conference.

Section 6

All members of the Association shall have full voting privileges on Association business.

Section 7

A roster of current members of the Association shall be maintained by the Membership Chair and made publicly available to the membership.

Section 8

The eligibility of a member to vote and all of his or her other privileges and interests in the Association shall cease upon the termination of his or her membership.

Article III – Board of Directors

The business and affairs of the Association shall be governed by a Board of Directors.

Section 1 – Composition of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors shall be composed of:

1. the officers designated in Article IV;
2. the Segmental Representatives designated in Article VI;
3. the At-Large Representative designated in Article VI;
4. the Webmaster designated in Article VII; and
5. the Past-President designated in Article V.

Section 2 – Board of Directors Responsibilities

The Board of Directors shall:

1. meet on a regular basis (in person or electronically) to conduct the general affairs of the Association;
2. formulate Association policies and procedures consistent with the Articles of Incorporation and bylaws;
3. assist in planning and administering the Annual Conference and other professional development events and activities;
4. set the amount and timing of membership dues and other charges as appropriate;
5. function as a budget committee;
6. promote the benefits of membership and support and conduct efforts to recruit new or lapsed members into the Association;
7. resolve disputes in election count discrepancies between the Past-President and President; and
8. fill vacancies, unless otherwise provided for in the Articles of Incorporation or bylaws.

Section 3 – Contract and Signing Authority

All checks, notes, acceptances, and orders for payment of money valued over five-hundred dollars ($500) shall be signed by any two of the President, President-Elect, or Treasurer, or other agents of the Association designated by the Board of Directors. All contracts, leases and deeds of any kind shall be signed by the President, President-Elect or any other agent of the Association designated by the Board of Directors.

Section 4 – Compensation

Members of the Board of Directors or any Association committee shall not be compensated but may be eligible for awards and reasonable reimbursements.

Article IV – Officers and Duties

5. post Association materials to the website in a timely manner;
6. ensure that website security is current and adequate; and
7. serve as webmaster at the appointment of the President.

Article VIII – Elections

Section 1 – Nomination of Candidates for Office

1. The Past-President shall call for nominations from the membership at least ninety (90) days before the next annual business meeting, referring to or providing the roster of members eligible to hold office.
2. Each member shall have the right to nominate:
 - candidates for the office of President-Elect;
 - candidates for any Segmental Representative office;
 - candidates for the office of At-Large Representative;
 - in even numbered years, candidates for the office of Treasurer;
 - in odd numbered years, candidates for the office of Secretary; and
 - in odd numbered years, candidates for the office of Membership Chair.

3. Nominations shall be returned to the Past-President by at least forty-five (45) days prior to the next annual business meeting.
4. The Past-President shall obtain permission from each nominee to place his/her name on the ballot.
5. The ballot for all elected offices must have at least one candidate. There is no limit to the number of candidates on the ballot for any office.
6. A member can appear on the ballot as a nominee for only one position.

Section 2 – Election of Candidates for Office

1. The Past-President or his/her designee shall disseminate ballots to the membership by at least thirty (30) days prior to the next annual business meeting.
2. Each member shall be entitled to one vote for each officer position on the ballot, one vote for a candidate for his/her appropriate Segmental Representative, and one vote for the an At-Large Segmental Representative candidate.
3. The member shall exercise the right to vote by returning his or her ballot to the Past-President or his/her designee by at least fifteen (15) days prior to the next annual business meeting.
4. If electronic balloting is utilized, the recipient of the electronic voting shall provide the ballots in written or electronic form to the Past-President and President.
5. The Past-President and President shall count the ballots separately. Any discrepancies in the count shall be resolved between the two enumerators. If they cannot resolve the discrepancy, the Board of Directors will decide the issue.
6. In case of a tie, a run-off election between the candidates tied shall be conducted by the Past-President prior to the annual business meeting. A majority vote of the Board of Directors shall resolve tie votes in the election of candidates if unresolved by the annual business meeting.
7. The Past-President shall notify the Board of Directors and the candidates of the election results.
8. At the annual business meeting, the President shall announce the upcoming year's Board of Directors who received a majority of votes cast or is continuing.
9. All newly elected officers shall assume office at the beginning of the calendar year following their election (January 1).

Section 3 – Resignations and Removal from office

1. An officer may resign only by submitting a written resignation to the President (or Secretary or to the other Directors, if the resigning officer is the President).
2. Should an elected officer, representative, or committee member fail to fulfill her/his responsibilities as defined in the Articles of Incorporation or in the bylaws, that person may be removed from office by vote of the Board of Directors. Prior to such a vote, the person who is the object of the vote shall be notified via certified mail of the Board of Directors' intention to take such a vote.

In addition, immediate notice must be given to the membership prior to such a vote. The person who is the object of the vote has a right to respond in writing within fourteen (14) days of receipt of the certified notice. The Board of Directors may take its vote upon receipt of the response or fourteen (14) days after the notice was delivered to the person who is the object of the vote. Immediately prior to the vote, members of the Board of Directors shall discuss all relevant information related to the vote. If 75% of the Board of Directors votes in favor of removal, the person who is the object of the vote is immediately removed from office. The person who was removed should be immediately notified of that fact by certified mail and the membership should be immediately informed. The vacancy shall be expeditiously filled in a manner consistent with Article IV, Section 7 and Article VI, Section 4.

Article IX – Meetings

Section 1 – Annual Conference and Business Meeting

The Annual Conference of the Association shall be held each year at a site and date determined by the Board of Directors. The annual business meeting shall be held in conjunction with the Annual Conference.

Section 2 – Regular Board Meetings

Regular meetings of the board shall be held at least quarterly and may be scheduled more often by the President.

Section 3 – Special Meetings

Special meetings of the Board shall be held at any time and at any place when called by the President or by at least three members of the Board Directors. Special business meetings of the membership shall be held at any time and place when called by at least two-thirds of the Board of Directors. Business transacted at special meetings shall be confined to the purposes of the meeting stated in the notice of the meeting.

Section 4 – Notice of Meetings

Notice of regular Board meetings, including the annual meeting, shall be in writing and delivered to the membership at least ten (10) days and no more than thirty (30) days before the day of the meeting. Notices of special meetings shall state that it is a special meeting being called and may be given orally or in writing at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to the meeting time. Failure of notice to any member shall not invalidate the meeting or any action taken at the meeting.

Section 5 – Rules for Conducting Annual Business Meeting

The annual business meeting will be conducted according to Roberts' Rules of Order.

Section 6 – Quorum

A quorum at any business meeting of the Association shall consist of at least one half of the Association membership. A quorum at any officially called and announced meeting of the Board of Directors shall consist of sixty percent (60%) of the Board of Directors members.

Section 7 – Other Professional Development Events and Activities

The Association shall hold professional development events and activities as appropriate to serve the needs of the membership at sites and dates determined by the Board of Directors.

Section 8 – Action without Board of Directors Meeting

Any action which may be properly taken by the Board of Directors assembled in a meeting may also be taken without a meeting, if consent in writing setting forth the action so taken is signed by all of the Directors entitled to vote with respect to the action. Such consent shall have the same force and effect as a vote of the Directors assembled and shall be filed with the minutes.

Article X – Committees

Section 1

The President may appoint ad hoc committees as deemed necessary for the welfare of the Association. Appointment to positions and committees is restricted to members of the Association.

Section 2 – Awards Committee

The Awards Committee shall be composed of:

1. members of the Board of Directors; and
2. other members appointed by the Past-President.

Section 3 – Awards Committee responsibilities

The Awards Committee shall:

1. determine the eligibility of candidates for emeritus membership status and determine approval of such status for all eligible candidates;
2. determine the recipient(s) of the Best Paper Award at the Annual Conference;
3. determine the recipient(s) of the Research Award when available;
4. determine the recipient(s) of the Marilyn Brown Distinguished Service Award, if necessary;
5. determine the qualifications, eligibility, and recipient(s) of other Association awards; and
6. exclude a member of the Awards Committee from the deliberation and decision for any award for which that member is a candidate.

Article XI – Limitation of Liability

To the fullest extent permitted by Maryland statutory or decisional law, as amended or interpreted, no director or officer of this Association shall be personally liable to the Association or its members for money damages; provided, however, that the foregoing limitation of director and officer liability shall only be to the extent permitted of organizations which are exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986) or the corresponding provisions of any future federal tax code). No amendment of the Articles of Incorporation or repeal of any of its provisions shall limit or eliminate the benefits provided to directors and officers under this provision with respect to any act or omission which occurred prior to such amendment or repeal.

Article XII – Amendments to the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws

The bylaws may be amended in two ways: either at a business meeting or electronically during the year between annual business meetings. The Articles of Incorporation may only be amended at a business meeting.

Section 1 – Amendments of the Articles of Incorporation and/or bylaws at a business meeting

1. Proposed amendments to the Articles of Incorporation and/or bylaws: a) may be submitted to any member of the Board of Directors by a member of the Association in writing (either on paper or via electronic transmission) at least sixty (60) days prior to a business meeting or b) may originate through actions in the Board of Directors.
2. Proposed amendments shall be distributed by the Membership Chair to the membership at least thirty (30) days prior to a business meeting.
3. Approved amendments to the Articles of Incorporation or bylaws conforming with this Article shall become effective at the end of the business meeting at which they are approved by two-thirds of the members present.
4. Approved amendments to the Articles of Incorporation shall be submitted to the State within thirty (30) days following the business meeting.

Section 2 – Amendments of the bylaws during the year between annual business meetings.

1. Proposed amendments to the bylaws: a) may be submitted to any member of the Board of Directors by a member of this Association in writing (either on paper or via electronic transmission); or b) may originate through actions in the Board of Directors.
2. Proposed amendments shall be distributed to the membership by the Membership Chair in writing (either on paper or via electronic transmission).
3. Members shall have the opportunity to vote on the proposed amendments via electronic transmission and will have a minimum of fourteen (14) days to cast their vote.

4. The President or his/her designee shall receive the electronic voting. If a designee, he/she shall provide the ballots on the proposed amendments in written or electronic form to the President and Past-President who shall count them to determine approval status.
5. Proposed amendments require a quorum of one-half the current membership; a three-quarters majority approval of those voting is required for approval of the proposed amendments.
6. Proposed amendments to the bylaws conforming to this Article shall become effective immediately upon certification of election results by the President and Past-President.
7. The Membership Chair will announce the results of the bylaws amendment referendum to the membership.

Article XIII – Awards and Emeritus Membership

Section 1 – Awards

The Awards Committee may bestow awards to exemplary Association members. The Awards Committee is responsible for developing criteria and documenting an objective selection process for each award. Such awards include, but are not limited to:

1. Best Paper Award – This award is bestowed annually to the member(s) for the best presentation at the Annual Conference. The Awards Committee determines the most deserving recipient after the Annual Conference. This award pays for the registration of one individual at the next Association for Institutional Research (AIR) annual Forum. The recipient is obligated to repeat the presentation at the AIR Forum. The Best Paper Award shall not be awarded to the current Past-President as defined in Article V.
2. Research Award – Research award(s) may be offered and bestowed by the Awards Committee dependent on the availability of funds and receipt of applications meeting award requirements. The award helps support a current Association member's research that contributes to knowledge of institutional research or postsecondary education and should relate to Maryland higher education. The Awards Committee determines the recipient from a pool of applicants. The recipient must write a research paper and present it at an Annual Conference within eighteen (18) months of receipt of the award. The Research Award shall not be awarded to the current Past-President as defined in Article V.
3. Marilyn Brown Distinguished Service Award – This distinguished service award is bestowed upon an Association member for recognition of outstanding service to the field of institutional research in general and to the Association in particular. The award, named in honor of Marilyn Brown, one of the founding members of the Association, is bestowed by the Awards Committee whenever appropriate to recognize members who have demonstrated a long and exemplary service to the organization. The Marilyn Brown Distinguished Service Award shall not be given to a current member of the Board of Directors or Awards Committee.

Section 2 – Emeritus membership

General Policy:

1. Emeritus membership is awarded by the Awards Committee.
2. To be eligible for emeritus membership, the member must:
 - a. have terminated regular employment through retirement (continuation or resumption of employment on a part-time or non-continuing basis following retirement shall not affect eligibility for emeritus membership status), and
 - b. have been an active member of the Association for a minimum of half the number of years that the Association has been in existence. No more than fifteen (15) years will be required.
 - c. Emeritus members shall receive all rights and privileges afforded full members.
 - d. Emeritus membership shall be awarded for the life of the member, but can be terminated if the member notifies the Treasurer in writing or via electronic transmission that he/she wishes to do so.
 - e. Emeritus members do not pay annual membership dues.

Process for Selection:

3. Application for emeritus status may be made to any member of the current Board of Directors by the candidate or by any current Association member.
4. The Awards Committee shall verify that the person has met all eligibility requirements for emeritus status and may grant emeritus status any candidate that is determined to meet the eligibility requirements.
5. The Past-President shall inform the candidate the Awards Committee findings and decision regarding his/her application for emeritus status.
6. At the Annual Conference the President shall announce to the membership the individual(s) for whom emeritus status was approved.

Article XIV – Miscellaneous Provisions

Section 1 – Calendar

The fiscal year of the Association shall begin on January 1 and end on December 31.

Section 2 – Expenditures of Financial Resources

The expenditure of the Association's financial resources shall further the purposes of the Association as specified in Article II of the Articles of Incorporation.

Section 3 – Conflict of Interest

Any board member, officer, employee, or committee member having an interest in a contract or other transaction or determination presented to the Board of Directors or a committee of the Association for recommendation, authorization, approval or ratification shall give prompt, full and frank disclosure of his or her interest to the Board of Directors or committee prior to its acting on such contract or transaction. The body to which such disclosure is made shall thereupon determine, by majority vote, whether the disclosure shows that a conflict of interest exists or can reasonably be construed to exist. If a conflict is deemed to exist, such person shall not vote on, nor use his or her personal influence on, nor participate (other than to present factual information or to respond to questions) in the discussions or deliberations with respect to such contact, transaction or determination. Such person may not be counted in determining the existence of a quorum at any meeting where the contract, transaction, or determination is under discussion or is being voted upon. The minutes of the meeting shall reflect the disclosure made, the vote thereon and, where applicable the abstention from voting and participation, and whether a quorum was present.

Section 4 – Inspection and Maintenance of Records

A copy of the Association's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws, as amended to date, shall be maintained by the Secretary and shall be posted on the Association's website, as practicable. A copy of all documents required by law to be open to the public shall be posted on the Association's website, as practicable. All records of the Association shall be open to inspection by any member upon written request for a purpose reasonably related to the member's interest as a member.

Adopted by the Membership 10/19/2012
